ABOUT ÖMR

The Austrian Music Council is the umbrella organization of interest groups for music in Austria. We represent around 380,000 amateur and professional musicians. We lobby for their interests in the areas of music education, music business, social security and cultural diversity.

Our goal is to promote music in education, practice and business. We stand for stylistic plurality and for a constructive dialogue on an equal footing with decision-makers from politics, the media and business.

OUR TOPICS

- Cultural diversity and music promotion
- Music and education
- Social security, fair pay and fairness
- Copyright and media
- Music industry and music export
- Career entry and professionalization

OUR ACTIVITIES

■ Lobbying

First point of contact for political decision-makers in music-related questions

■ Networking

Coordinating the interests of music institutions and associations in Austria

■ Action

Active participation in cultural and educational policy processes, cooperation with cultural and economic organizations to achieve common goals

■ Representation

Promotion of the diversity in music in all styles / genres
